

Angolan Bush Duiker

Sylvicapra grimmia splendida

DESCRIPTION More brightly colored than the southern bush duiker, with the upperparts a bright reddish gray and the underparts white. Duikers from the area between the Luando and Quanza rivers in north-central Angola are said to have light-colored eye rings.

DISTRIBUTION Angola, southwestern Congo (K), and the savanna areas of Gabon and Congo (B).

SC1 Record Book of Trophy Animals and the SC1 Trophy Records Committee proudly presents
this certificate to:

Mechislav Klimovich

for taking a Angolan Bush Duiker with a Rifle measuring 9 4/16

On a hunt in Zambia, Nchita on 09/24/2012
Measured by Mechislav Klimovich on 11/02/2012.